

UK IN A CHANGING EUROPE

We are an award-winning, impartial academic think tank. We provide evidence grounded in research in the form of long reads, commentary pieces, working papers and more. Our aim? To make social science accessible.

WHAT WE DO

We have held numerous public events all over the UK, published timely and informative reports, released entertaining videos and produced lively podcasts to help us explain what's happening when it comes to Brexit and the UK's changing relationship with the European Union and the wider world. Behind the scenes, we have briefed MPs, peers, civil servants, journalists, diplomats and businesses on some of the biggest and most pressing issues of our time.

VISIT OUR WEBSITE

We have hundreds of publications available at www.ukandeu.ac.uk covering all aspects of UK and EU politics, policy, law and economics. You'll also find our latest events, podcasts, videos and newsletter sign-up page (plus much more).

BREXIT WITNESS ARCHIVE

Our Brexit Witness Archive brings together the experiences of the people who shaped the Brexit process: the campaigners, the politicians and the officials who were involved in the process of the United Kingdom's departure from the European Union. Read their in-depth interviews on our website.

EVENTS

We've organised events on a large number of themes, including health, Parliament, Brexit, trade, public opinion, local government and Northern Ireland. Academics and non-academics have come together to discuss topical issues. Speakers have included Liz Truss, Tony Blair, Nigel Farage, Laura Kuenssberg, Natalie Bennett, Michael Gove, Anushka Asthana, Ed Miliband, Iain Duncan Smith, Heather Stewart, Adam Boulton, Nicky Morgan, Nick Robinson and Sonia Sodha, to name a few.

BREXIT AND BEYOND PODCAST

Our podcast series, presented by Anand Menon, digs deep into topical social, political, legal and economic issues. Previous guests have included Margaret MacMillan, Archbishop Justin Welby, Bobby Duffy, Brigid Laffan, Danny Dorling, and Ngaire Woods.

AFTER BREXIT

The UK has left the EU, and Brexit has fundamentally reshaped this country. The UK is working on a new relationship with the EU, which will have wide-ranging consequences for its constitution, economy and politics.

The UK has to create new policies in significant areas including immigration, the environment, agriculture, fishing and food.

And what of the UK's relationship with the rest of the world, the EU and its member states? A lot is changing. Rapidly.

UK in a Changing Europe deploys expert academics to explain, clearly and impartially, what is happening.

REPORTS

Our reports provide comprehensive analysis on a wide range of issues including regulatory divergence, 'Global Britain', political values, the views of voters, the future of regulation in the UK and more.

OUR TEAM

UK in a Changing Europe is directed by Anand Menon. He is supported by Deputy Directors Catherine Barnard and Paula Surridge.

Academic fellows form a core part of the team and have included research fellows David Bailey, Meredith Crowley, John Curtice, Sarah Hall, Katy Hayward, Hussein Kassim, Nicola McEwen, Jonathan Portes and Meg Russell, and senior research fellow Jill Rutter.

Our sister research project, Governance after Brexit, is led by Dan Wincott.
